

CAROL A. CHASE
Professor of Law
Pepperdine Law School
Malibu, California 90263
(310) 506-4675

MAJOR COURSES:

Evidence
Criminal Procedure
Criminal Law
Trial Practice

EDUCATION:

UCLA Law School
J.D. 1978
Member UCLA Law Review
Participant in Moot Court Program
Teaching Assistant, Legal Research & Writing 1977-1978

University of California at Los Angeles
A.B. 1975 summa cum laude (History)
Phi Beta Kappa
Junior Year Abroad at Leeds University, England (1973-1974)

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY:

1998-present	Professor of Law Pepperdine School of Law
2013-present	Director, Off-Campus Education Pepperdine School of Law
2010-2012	Associate Dean, Academics Pepperdine School of Law
1990-1997	Associate Professor of Law Pepperdine School of Law
1987-1988	Products Liability Associate Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom Los Angeles, California
1983-1987	Assistant United States Attorney United States Attorneys Office Criminal Division Los Angeles, California
1978-1983	Litigation Associate Hughes, Hubbard & Reed Los Angeles, California
Summer 1977	Summer Associate

Hughes, Hubbard & Reed
New York, New York

Spring 1977

Extern/Clerk
Honorable Laughlin E. Waters
United States District Judge, CD CA

PUBLICATIONS:

Books

The Art and Science of Trial Advocacy Casefile Supplement, Second Edition (forthcoming, Carolina Academic Press) (Co-Author)
The Art and Science of Trial Advocacy, Second Edition (Lexis-Nexis 2011) (co-author)
The Art and Science of Trial Advocacy Casefile Supplement (Lexis-Nexis, 2009) (co-author)

Articles

“Cops, Canines, and Curtilage: What Jardines Teaches and What It Leaves Unanswered”, 52 Houston Law Review 1289 (2015)

“Transparency and Death Penalty Decision Making: An Argument for Greater Openness and Better Recordkeeping,” 82 Temple Law Review 997 (2009) (co-author)

“Cars, Cops and Crooks: A Re-Examination of Belton and Carroll with an Eye Toward Restoring Fourth Amendment Privacy Protection to Automobiles,” 85 Oregon Law Review 913 (2006)

“Is Crawford a ‘Get out of Jail Free’ Card for Batterers and Abusers? An Argument for a Narrow Definition of ‘Testimonial’” 84 Oregon Law Review 1093 (2005)

The Five Faces of the Confrontation Clause,” 40 Houston Law Review 1003 (2003)

“Rampart: A Crying Need to Resolve Police Accountability,” 34 Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review 767 (2001) (Symposium)

“Privacy Takes A Back Seat: Putting the Automobile Exception Back on Track After Several Wrong Turns,” 27 Search and Seizure Law Report No. 9 (2000) (Adapted from Boston publication, below)

“Privacy Takes A Back Seat: Putting the Automobile Exception Back on Track After Several Wrong Turns,” 41 Boston College Law Review 71 (1999).

Contributor to Pepperdine Law Review Symposium on the Exclusionary Rule, 26 Pepperdine Law Review, Vol. 4 (1999).

“If It’s Broken, Fix It: Moving Beyond the Exclusionary Rule,” 26 Search and Seizure Law Report No. 7 (August 1999) (co-author) (Adapted from Iowa publication, below).

“If It’s Broken, Fix It: Moving Beyond the Exclusionary Rule,” 83 Iowa Law Review 669 (1998) (co-author).

“A Challenge for Cause Against Peremptory Challenges in Criminal Proceedings,” 19 Loyola Int’l and Comp. Law Journal 507 (1997) (co-author).

“Hearing the ‘Sounds of Silence’ in Criminal Trials: A Look at Recent British Law Reforms with an Eye Toward Reforming the American Criminal Justice System,” 44 Kansas Law Review 929 (1996)

“Simpson Sideshow,” L.A. Daily Journal, March 1, 1995.

“Bad Dream Team,” L.A. Daily Journal, January 31, 1995.

“The Unruly Exclusionary Rule: Heeding Justice Blackmun’s Call to Examine the Rule in Light of Changing Judicial Understanding About its Effects Outside the Courtroom,” 78 Marquette Law Review 45 (1994) (co-author)

“Balancing Defendants' Confrontation Clause Rights Against the Need to Protect Child Abuse Victims,” Vol. 10, No. 3 L.A.C.B.A. Litigation Section Newsletter, Spring 1994.

“Confronting Supreme Confusion: Balancing Defendants’ Confrontation Clause Rights Against the Need to Protect Child Abuse Victims,” 1993 Utah Law Review 407 (1993).

“Video Piracy: Federal Criminal Copyright Penalties,” Los Angeles Lawyer April 1986.

PUBLIC SERVICE:

Survey and Report on California death penalty charging decisions (co-author) for the California Commission on the Fair Administration of Justice (2007) available at:
<http://www.ccfaj.org/documents/reports/dp/expert/Pepperdine-Caldwell%20Research.pdf>

AWARDS RECEIVED:

Howard A. White Award for Teaching Excellence, 2008
Luckman Distinguished Teaching Fellowship for 1994-1999

MEMBER:

California State Bar Association
American Bar Association