

FALL 2012 CLASS SCHEDULE

As of August 27, 2012 at 3:35 p.m.

NOTES ON 2012/2013 SCHOOL OF LAW CALENDAR

NOTICE: UPPER-DIVISION WRITING AND SKILLS REQUIREMENT

The faculty has enacted an upper-division writing requirement and an upper division skills requirement as mandated for all law schools by the ABA. Courses that provide an opportunity to fulfill the writing requirement and the skills requirement are identified in the schedule. For more information about these requirements, please see sections 14.12 and 14.13 of the Academic Policy Statement at <http://law.pepperdine.edu/academics/policy/>.

NOTICE: PRIORITY ENROLLMENT FOR STRAUS DISPUTE RESOLUTION ELECTIVES

Students participating in either the dispute resolution certificate or master's in dispute resolution program will receive priority enrollment in all dispute resolution elective courses, with the exception of the Alternative Dispute Resolution course. Students not participating in either program may place themselves on a waitlist and seat availability will be determined at the beginning of the semester. Seats not filled by program participants will be released to JD students on the waitlist.

NOTICE: RESCHEDULING EXAMS

Every effort has been made to avoid conflicts between required courses and in the final exam schedules. Students may not petition to reschedule a final exam unless two final exams are to be taken on the same day. Therefore, it is important for you to pay attention to the final exam schedule when you are selecting your courses. Petitions to change one of two exams scheduled for the same day must be filed by the seventh week of classes. For additional details concerning the law school final exam policies go to <http://law.pepperdine.edu/academics/policy/>.

D & L STRAUS DISTINGUISHED VISITING PROFESSOR

AKHIL REED AMAR (Advanced Constitutional Law: Reading The Constitution): Akhil Reed Amar, Sterling Professor of Law and Political Science at Yale Law School, is considered by many to be the most outstanding constitutional law scholar of his generation. He was the second youngest person to be tenured and given a chair in the Yale Law School's history. As an undergraduate he attended Yale College, where he majored in history and economics, won many prizes, earned a perfect grade point average, and was a star debater. Later, as a student at Yale Law School, he served as editor of the Yale Law Journal. Professor Amar is the author of several distinguished scholarly books and law review articles, has been cited by the Supreme Court often and is one of the most frequently quoted academics in America. He was also a consultant to the popular television show "The West Wing," and serves on the Board of Directors for the National Constitution Center.

AHMED TAHA (Civil Procedure and Law and Economics): Ahmed Taha's research focuses primarily on empirical studies of consumer and investor protection law. This research reflects both his training in law and in economics in which he holds a Ph.D. His research has been discussed in national media outlets, including the New York Times and the Wall Street Journal. He is also the 2011 recipient of the Joseph Branch Excellence in Teaching Award. Prior to joining the faculty, Professor Taha was an attorney in the Antitrust Division of the U. S. Department of Justice in Washington, D. C., an associate with Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati in Palo Alto, California, and a corporate finance analyst at McKinsey and Company in New York.

DISTINGUISHED VISITING PRACTITIONER IN RESIDENCE

MARK BELNICK (Appellate Advocacy): Mark Belnick is one of America's most distinguished attorneys. An accomplished trial and appellate lawyer, Mr. Belnick spent most of his professional career at the preeminent international law firm of Paul, Weiss, Rifikind, Wharton & Garrison, where he rose to the position of senior litigation partner. After retiring from Paul, Weiss, Mr. Belnick served 4 years as Executive Vice President and Chief Corporate Counsel of Tyco International, Ltd. Since then, he has headed his own law practice in NYC, concentrating on complex commercial and white collar criminal litigation, internal corporate investigations, and alternative dispute resolution. Litigation Career Highlights: In 1987, Mr. Belnick was named Deputy Chief Counsel to the U.S. Senate Iran/Contra Investigation. He appeared frequently examining witnesses on the nationally-televised hearings, and was a principal author of the acclaimed Joint Senate/House Report on Iran/Contra Investigation. In 1995, the US SEC Chair appointed Mr. Belnick Chief Counsel to a Select Committee of senior statesmen (chaired by former U.S. Sen. Warren Rudman), which the SEC established to investigate widespread allegations concerning the enforcement activities and structure of the NASD and the Nasdaq Stock Market. After an intense investigation, under Mr. Belnick's guidance, the Select Committee recommended a top-to-bottom restructuring of the NASD and Nasdaq and their compliance and enforcement regimes. The SEC approved and NASD implemented all of the Committee's recommendations. In 1993, Mr. Belnick led a widely-publicized internal corporate investigation of Woolworth, Inc. – one of the earliest such internal investigations of a major, public corporation. The SEC and other regulators accepted Mr. Belnick's findings and took no adverse action against the Company as the Woolworth Board instituted all of Mr. Belnick's findings and recommended reforms.

At Paul, Weiss, Mr. Belnick led, or was heavily engaged in, numerous major civil and white collar litigations – not least Pennzoil's precedent-setting action against Texaco in the fight for Getty Oil, which resulted in a $13 Billion jury verdict for Pennzoil (the largest such verdict in U.S. history), affirmed on appeal, with litigation in federal and state courts in Delaware, Texas, NY and ultimately the U.S. Supreme Court. Other key cases: Mr. Belnick won an antitrust jury verdict, affirmed by the 4th Cir., for The Coca-Cola Company in a treble damage case by Pepsi's largest bottler. For American Express, Mr. Belnick won the dismissal, affirmed by the 2d Cir., of a federal RICO class action. He represented Smith Barney in the first nationwide employee sexual harassment and discrimination class action, negotiating an innovative settlement that had a dramatic impact on the way such disputes are handled on Wall Street today. For his client Koramatsu (based in Japan), Mr. Belnick won a dismissal, affirmed by the 9th Cir., of a treble damage antitrust action brought by Union Carbide. He also led Michael Milken's representation in the 380+ civil litigations and class actions brought against him in numerous state and federal jurisdictions (including California and the 9th Circuit) making a wide variety of securities fraud, RICO and antitrust claims. He won the only of those cases to be litigated to final judgment, in the 2d Cir., and was the chief negotiator of the complex settlement that resolved the remaining massive litigation. In the field of legal education: Mr. Belnick taught an international law course on the Arab/Israel Conflict as an Adjunct Professor at Cardozo Law School. He was Founding Director of, and then served for 6 years as Principal Lecturer in, Cornell University's Pre-Law Program, with the rank of Visiting Professor of Government. In 2007, Mr. Belnick was appointed to the Princeton faculty as University Lecturer, teaching courses in Constitutional Interpretation and Civil Liberties (currently on leave). He has also guest lectured on a variety of legal subjects at law, business, undergraduate schools, and other forums, throughout the country. Mr. Belnick is a Fellow of the prestigious American College of Trial Lawyers, elected in 1994. Law and Politics has consistently named him one of Manhattan's "Super Lawyers" in litigation, comprised of Manhattan's top 5% in the first such listing, to be published shortly in The American Lawyer and Martindale, his peers have rated Mr. Belnick "AV Preeminent". Avenue magazine, in a forthcoming article, will cite Mr., Belnick as one of America's "elite" litigators. He is listed in Who's Who in America and Who's Who in American Law.

Mr. Belnick received the A.B. degree from Cornell Univ., cum laude in Government. He received the J.D. degree from Columbia Law School, where he was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar. He serves on the Board of Visitors of Columbia Law School and the Advisory Council of Cornell's College of Arts & Sciences. Cornell's Board of Trustees recently voted to make Mr. Belnick a Life Member of the University Council. He has also served on the Boards of the James Madison Program in American Ideals & Institutions at Princeton, The NY Legal Aid Society, Newark Academy, and others.

VISITING PROFESSOR

DONALD HARRIS (Patent Law and Intellectual Property Survey): Professor Harris is a specialist in international intellectual property at Temple University, Beasley School of Law. He received his J.D. from Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, where he received the dean's award for outstanding public service and the pro bono service award. Professor Harris also received an LL.M. from the University of Wisconsin, where he was awarded the Hastie Fellowship, specializing in international intellectual property. Professor Harris joined Temple in 2003, and teaches in the areas of intellectual property and commercial law. His courses include: Introduction to Intellectual Property, International Intellectual Property, Patents, Trademarks and Uniform Commercial Code (Sales). Prior to joining Temple, Professor Harris practiced intellectual property law, specializing in patent litigation, as an associate in the San Francisco office of Cooley Godward. Professor Harris has spoken at numerous symposia and colloquia, and has written numerous articles on international intellectual property, including articles discussing the international intellectual property treaty, Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS).

NEW ADJUNCT FACULTY MEMBERS

LEE BOYD (International Litigation): Lee Crawford Boyd is a founder and managing partner in the Los Angeles Office of Schwarcz, Rimberg, Boyd & Rader LLP. She has served in government as a criminal prosecutor in New York, a litigation associate in a major entertainment law firm in the private sector, and a tenured professor of law at Pepperdine Law School, specializing in complex and international litigation and trial practice, international human rights, and foreign affairs law. As a law professor, Lee published widely in the area of human rights litigation and served of counsel to survivors and victims in human rights cases and Holocaust restitution litigation. Since 2007, Lee has served business and individual clients as trial and appellate counsel in matters involving international litigation, intellectual property rights, employment discrimination, legal malpractice and general commercial matters on behalf of business and individual clients.

PHIL J. HARTER (Environmental and Public Policy): Philip Harter is Scholar in Residence at Vermont Law School and Earl F. Nelson Professor of Law Emeritus at the University of Missouri. Professor Harter has been involved in the design of many of the major developments of Administrative Law in the past 40 years. He is the author of more than 50 papers and books on Administrative Law and has been a visiting professor or guest lecturer internationally, including visiting at the University of Paris II, Humboldt University (Berlin), and the University of the Western Cape (Cape Town); he has consulted on Environmental mediation and public participation in rulemaking in China, including a project sponsored by the Peoples Supreme Court. He has received multiple awards for his achievements in Administrative Law. He is listed in Who's Who in America and is a member of the Administrative Conference of the United States. Mr. Harter has been a pioneer in both the theory and practice of the use of collaboration, mediation, and other forms of dispute resolution involving government agencies. His research provided the theoretical basis for negotiated rulemaking and has served as the foundation for the subsequent practice. He served as the chair of the President's Task Force on the Revision of the Occupational Safety and Health Administration's (OSHA) Safety Standards. He was Chair of the Section of Administrative Law and Regulatory Practice of the American Bar Association and Co-chair of its Task Force on Regulatory Reform in which capacity he represented the ABA in the regulatory reform debates before Congress. Following his path breaking article on negotiating regulations, he spent twenty years in private practice specializing in the mediation of complex, multi-party disputes involving government policy. He has served as the mediator for the Environmental Protection Agency and the Departments of Agriculture, Commerce, Defense, Education, Energy, Interior, Labor, and Transportation, as well as the States of California and Vermont. Professor Harter graduated from Kenyon College in 1964; received an MA (ABD) in Mathematics from the University of Michigan in 1966; and a JD from Michigan in 1969.

ROBERT G. KAUFMAN (Public International Law): Robert G. Kaufman is a political scientist specializing in American foreign policy, national security, international relations, and various aspects of American politics. Kaufman received his JD from Georgetown University Law School in Washington, D.C., and his BA, MA, M. Phil., and PhD from Columbia University in the city of New York. Kaufman has written frequently for scholarly journals and popular publications, including The Weekly Standard, Policy Review, The Washington Times, the Baltimore Sun, The Philadelphia Inquirer, and the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. He is the author of three books. His most recent book In Defense of the Bush Doctrine was published by the University Press of Kentucky in May 2007. In 2000, his biography, Henry M Jackson: A Life in Politics received the Emil and Katherine Sick Award for the best book on the history of the Pacific Northwest. His first book, Arms Control During the Prenuclear Era, which Columbia University Press published, studied the interwar naval treaties and their linkage to the outbreak of World War II in the Pacific. Kaufman also assisted President Richard M. Nixon in the research and writing of Nixon's final Book, Beyond Peace. He is currently in the research phase of a biography of President Ronald Reagan, focusing on his presidency and his quest for it. Kaufman is a former Bradley Scholar and current adjunct scholar at the Heritage Foundation. He has taught at Colgate University, The Naval War College, and the University of Vermont.

MICHAEL LEB (Selected Issues in Dispute Resolution: Employment Disputes): Michael Leb has over 25 years broad-based legal experience - with a unique blend of transactional and litigation expertise - all of which he brings to bear in his work as a mediator and arbitrator. He has practiced at Latham & Watkins, held senior executive positions with two Fortune 50 companies in law, human resources, labor relations and operations, and represented plaintiffs at a top-tier trial boutique and as a solo practitioner. His litigation experience includes broad and deep expertise at both the trial and appellate levels in labor and employment law, including class actions, as well as federal and state court commercial litigation. In his role as Senior Vice President of People for Wal-Mart, he oversaw the company's human resource compliance function and its internal complaint resolution procedure to which over 1 million associates had access. Prior to that, as Safeway's Vice President of Labor Relations, he oversaw the company's internal grievance procedure applicable to over 100,000 employees across the United States. As Safeway's Vice President of Manufacturing, Michael lead the 44-plant, 2000 employee food-processing operation with annual sales of $3 billion. Michael is on the American Arbitration Association's Employment Law Arbitration and Mediation Panels. In addition to his private dispute resolution practice, Michael also serves on the Los Angeles County Equity Oversight Panel, the Federal District Court Settlement Officer Panel, the mediation panels for the Los Angeles and Orange County Superior Court, and as a Hearing Officer for the City of Santa Monica. He has also mediated cases for the Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Michael is an Adjunct Professor at Pepperdine University's Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution, a frequent speaker on ADR, and has published a number of articles on mediation and substantive law issues. He is a member of the Southern California Mediators Association, the California Association of Workplace Investigators and the Los Angeles County Bar Association's Labor & Employment Law Section. He is a cum laude graduate of Yale University and the University of Michigan Law School.

MARCELO ROSADILLA (Cross-Cultural Conflict & Dispute Resolution): Marcelo Rosadilla has extensive experience in handling complex, multiparty cases in the field of corporate, contractual, family and civil law. He opened his first law firm in 1992 along with two other law school colleagues. He has taught Commercial Law (Corporate, Contractual, IP, etc) to lawyers who wanted to undertake exams for judicial and governmental positions. As a Brazilian corporate and civil attorney, he practiced law for over 15 years before moving to California to work with several law firms in a legal-support company handling diverse types of cases from malpractice to insurance and workers comp. He is a graduate from the School of Law at the Universidade do Vale do Rio dos Sinos in Brazil, and later received his LL.M. in Dispute Resolution from the Straus Institute in 2010. He has since then, been committed to help reshape the world through ADR and peacemaking. He currently works at the Straus Institute as a Program Administrator helping foreign attorneys who want to come to Pepperdine for their LL.M. in Dispute Resolution.

THEODORE A. RUSSELL (Selected Issues in Dispute Resolution: Negotiation Ethics): Theodore Russell is Executive Vice President, Business Affairs, Digital Media and Home Entertainment for Fox Filmed Entertainment, where he is responsible for negotiating agreements to distribute the company's film and television content. Prior to assuming this role, Mr. Russell served as Senior Vice President of Litigation for Fox Entertainment Group, Inc. He began his career working as a litigator at Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, following a clerkship with the Honorable John G. Davies in the United States District Court for the Central District of California. Mr. Russell received his B.A. degree from Cornell University and his J.D. degree from USC, where he served as Executive Notes Editor of the Law Review, taught legal writing, and was elected to the Order of the Coif. Mr. Russell has taught several courses in negotiation and ethics at both USC and the Straus Institute of Dispute Resolution at Pepperdine University.

NEW COURSES BEING OFFERED THIS FALL 2012

For other course descriptions, please refer to the course catalog on the School of Law website at <http://law.pepperdine.edu/academics/content/catalog2012.pdf>

THE RULE OF LAW AND THE AMERICAN JUDICIARY: This course will examine the unique role of the American Judiciary in protecting and advancing the rule of law in our society. The debates of scholars and legal professionals regarding the contours of the rule of law and how to best achieve it will be explored, beginning with discussions of the American experience from a theoretical and historical perspective. The course will then turn to institutional matters concerning the judiciary and the courts, focusing on measures and techniques that foster judicial independence and neutrality which enhances the ideal of the Rule of Law. In addition to written assignments, students will engage in class debates on controversial aspects of the current system, such as jury trials, judicial elections, and the media and the courts.

FALL 2012 CLINICAL LAW COURSES

As of August 27, 2012 at 3:35 p.m.

NOTES ON 2012 CLINICAL LAW COURSES

If you think you are interested in participating in an externship during the Fall 2012 semester, please contact clinicallaw@pepperdine.edu. The externship registration deadline is August 31, 2012.

If you have a pending or secured externship, you must attend one of the mandatory orientation meetings. The mandatory orientation meetings are August 22-23, 2012. Please also note:

- Each externship includes a mandatory workshop that meets bi-weekly.
- All workshops will begin meeting the second week of the semester.
- Work at for-profit law firms does not qualify for externship credit.
- Externship students must enroll in both fieldwork and the accompanying workshop through the Clinical Programs Office in room 381. In-house clinical students may enroll via Wavenet. All externships are graded on a Pass/Fail basis.
- All externships must be approved in advance by the Director of Clinical Programs. Students must register with the Clinical Programs Office by August 31, 2012. All clinical courses are graded High Pass/Pass/Credit/Fail.
