Faculty Scholars Award Application

All first year applicants for JD admission are eligible to apply for the Faculty Scholars Award. This award is based on merit without regard to financial need. Full tuition plus a $7,000 stipend is awarded for the first year of law school. Each year thereafter, scholarship renewal is contingent upon maintaining a 2.8 grade point average at the close of each academic year.

It is recommended that applicants have a minimum undergraduate GPA of 3.65 and an LSAT score in the 85th percentile.

To apply, please respond to the following questions in the form of a letter:

- What are your strongest qualifications for this award?
- Describe your interest in the law as a profession.
- Describe your two most significant extracurricular activities or honors received in college.
- Describe your most significant leadership experience.
- Describe your most significant employment experience.
- Pepperdine is deeply committed to its Christian mission and welcoming to students from all faiths as it prepares students for lives of purpose, service, and leadership. The School of Law's mission encourages adherence to the highest moral and ethical standards. Please share how you would contribute to this unique community.

It is recommended that you upload and submit your Faculty Scholars Award application with your application for admission. You may also submit your Faculty Scholars Award application to lawadmis@pepperdine.edu. The Faculty Scholars application and your JD application for admission must be received and be complete by January 14, 2019.

If you are selected as a Faculty Scholars Award finalist, you must participate in the Faculty Scholars event on the Pepperdine Law campus February 16-19, 2019 for final consideration.
