

Fall 2017 Faculty Scholars Application

All first year applicants for JD admission are eligible to apply for the Faculty Scholars Award. This award is based on merit without regard to financial need. Additional details regarding this scholarship can be found here.

It is recommended that applicants have a minimum undergraduate GPA of 3.60 and an LSAT score in the 85th percentile.

To apply, please respond to the following questions in the form of a letter:

- What are your strongest qualifications for this award? Describe your interest in the law as a profession.
 - Describe your two most significant extracurricular activities or honors received in college.
 - Describe your most significant leadership experience.
 - Describe your most significant employment experience.
 - Describe how any of the above would contribute to or identify with Pepperdine School of Law's mission.

It is recommended that you upload and submit your Faculty Scholars application with your application for admission. You may also submit your Faculty Scholars application to lawadmis@pepperdine.edu. The Faculty Scholars application and your application for admission must be received and be complete by January 16, 2017.

If you are selected as a Faculty Scholars finalist, you must participate in the Faculty Scholars visit on the Pepperdine Law campus in February for final consideration.
