

Graduate Student Housing

On-campus housing provides students with the easiest access to everything Pepperdine - including our team of intentional community builders. Enhance your Pepperdine experience to its full potential and join our community made for you.

George Page Residential Complex

Across the street from the Caruso School of Law, the George Page Residential Complex provides quick access to classes and the Jerene Appleby Harnish Law Library. Residents also have access to a variety of residential amenities such as community rooms, fitness facilities, a large outdoor patio with BBQ grills, wireless internet, and mailboxes.

Apartments

Law students reside in apartments located in F and G blocks. Each apartment contains:

- Four single-occupancy bedrooms furnished with an extra-long full bed, dresser, nightstand, desk, and chair
- A kitchen equipped with a gas stovetop and oven, refrigerator, sink with disposal, and dishwasher
- A living room furnished with a couch, coffee table, end table, dining table, chairs, and a flat-screen television
- An apartment bathroom containing two sinks, one shower, and one toilet

Athletic and Gym Facilities

Residents have access to the gym located in the Caruso School of Law academic building. Additionally, the Firestone Fieldhouse Weight Center conveniently offers a variety of exercise equipment. Residents also have access to an Olympic-size pool, tennis courts, basketball courts, a track, a soccer field, hiking trails, and group fitness classes.

Shuttles

Pepperdine operates two shuttles every 10 to 15 minutes that stop at key campus locations. During weekdays, an off-campus Malibu shopping shuttle is also available to take students to nearby grocery and shopping centers.
