

APPLICATION FOR LOS ANGELES INCUBATOR CONSORTIUM PROGRAM FOR 2017

The Los Angeles Incubator Consortium has recently launched an innovative incubator program to support new solo practitioners in building their practice while also providing pro bono services to low income and modest means clients. Over the course of 12 months, selected participants in the program (“new solos”) will receive mentoring and training on substantive areas of law and law practice management. New solos will perform work through a variety of opportunities developed by legal services community partners including Bet Tzedek, Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles, Legal Aid Society of Orange County, Neighborhood Legal Services of Los Angeles County, and Public Counsel. New solos will receive substantive legal training in the areas where they will be doing pro bono from these legal service organizations and they will gain experience while also developing relationships that may lead to paying clients. Additionally, new solos will be trained in areas of law practice management, business development and marketing from consortium program partners including the Los Angeles County Law Library. New solos will work out of subsidized shared office space located in Koreatown, Compton, and possibly Westlake Village.

This program is open to graduates who are admitted to practice law in California. If selected, participants must commit to starting their law practice no later than February 1, 2017.
