NOTES ON 2010 SCHOOL OF LAW CALENDAR AND REGISTRATION FOR CLASSES

NOTICE: UPPER-DIVISION WRITING REQUIREMENT

The faculty has enacted an upper-division writing requirement as mandated for all law schools by the ABA. Courses that provide an opportunity to fulfill the writing requirement are identified in the schedule. For more information about this requirement, please see section 14.12 of the Academic Policy Statement at <http://law.pepperdine.edu/pdfs/academicpolicystatement2008.pdf>.

NOTICE: PRIORITY ENROLLMENT FOR STRAUS DISPUTE RESOLUTION ELECTIVES

JD students participating in either the dispute resolution certificate or master's program will receive priority enrollment in all dispute resolution elective courses, with the exception of Alternative Dispute Resolution. JD students not participating in either program may place themselves on a waitlist and seat availability will be determined at the beginning of the semester. Seats not filled by program participants will be released to JD students on the waitlist.

NOTICE: RESCHEDULING EXAMS

Every effort has been made to avoid conflicts between required courses and in the final exam schedules. Students may only petition to reschedule a final exam if two final exams are to be taken on the same day. Therefore, it is important for you to pay attention to the final exam schedule when you are selecting your courses. Petitions to change one of two exams scheduled for the same day must be filed by the seventh week of classes. For additional details concerning the law school final exam policy go to <http://law.pepperdine.edu/pdfs/academicpolicystatement2008.pdf>.

DISTINGUISHED PRACTITIONER IN RESIDENCE

ROGER COSSACK (Media and the Law): Roger Cossack was a prosecutor and a defense lawyer during his 22 years of practice and in 1984 he argued U.S. v. Leon before the U.S. Supreme Court. Prior to beginning his private practice of law he served (along with Professor Skip McDermott) on the faculty of the UCLA Law School. In 1994 he joined CNN as the co-host of their award winning legal show Burden of Proof and also was the CNN legal analyst. From 1994 to 2001 he covered all of the major U.S. legal events including breaking the Bush v. Gore decision, the impeachment of President Clinton, and the disputed election of 2000. Since 2002 he has served as the legal analyst for ESPN, reporting on how the law applies in various ways to sports.

NEW ADJUNCT FACULTY MEMBERS

THE HONORABLE HELEN I. BENDIX (Mediation Theory and Practice): Judge Helen I. Bendix presides over a general civil jurisdiction docket in Department 18 of the Los Angeles Superior Court. She is immediate past Chair of the LASC's ADR Committee. Prior to her judicial appointment in 1997, she was Senior VP and General Counsel of KCET, and a partner in the Los Angeles office of Heller Ehrman White & McAuliffe. Judge Bendix has authored articles and treatises on federal practice and procedure, ADR, and international law, and has taught at the UCLA and American University Law Schools. She is a member of the American Law Institute and the Chancery Club.

MICHAEL BLAINE BROOKS (Patent Law): Michael B. Brooks is a patent attorney practicing in Southern California since 1995. Presently in private practice, he was patent counsel and general counsel for a Department of Defense contractor later acquired by Alliant Techsystems. He holds B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees from UCLA School of Engineering and Applied Science — his doctorate received as a Howard Hughes Fellow while working as a research and development engineer in missile avionics. Dr. Brooks received his J.D. from Pepperdine University School of Law: a 28-month program that included the Franklin Pierce SOL Intellectual Property Summer Institute. He is a frequent lecturer on patent law for the Ventura County Bar Association and is a licensed California Professional Electrical Engineer. Dr. Brooks's university teaching experience includes seven semesters as Adjunct Professor of Engineering and Computer Science, California State University, Northridge, and twelve quarters as Teaching Assistant/Associate (Lower Division Instructor), UCLA School of Engineering and Applied Science. He is a senior member of both the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers and the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics. In 2008, his book, The Patent Protractor, became available in a print-on-demand edition and as an e-book.

NEW COURSES BEING OFFERED THIS SPRING 2010

For course descriptions, please refer to the course catalog on the School of Law website at <http://law.pepperdine.edu/pdfs/catalog2008pdf>

ADVANCED LEGAL RESEARCH: This course will provide students with the research skills needed in the practice of law. Topics to be covered will include use of primary and secondary sources, complex case law research, statutory research, and legislative history. In depth coverage of specialized topics will include administrative law, intellectual property, labor and employment law, tax, securities, foreign and international law. Advanced training in Lexis and Westlaw will be provided. Emphasis will be placed on appropriate and effective research strategies and evaluation of sources, both print and electronic.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH: YOUTH MENTORING IN LAW: This course is designed to connect Pepperdine law students to high school students from the Academy of Law and Justice at David Starr Jordan High School in Watts in order to expand all students understanding of the similarities and differences which make up our multicultural society. Law students will form a core group of mentors whose ultimate goal will be to expose the high school students to a 'river' of opportunities while simultaneously working to promote racial understanding. The high school student participants have expressed an interest in a career in law, and with the guidance and support from Pepperdine law student mentors, the impact of negative role models, challenged school environments and economically disadvantaged neighborhoods will be lessened. As mentors, law students will be responsible for maintaining contact with their mentees; coordinating with the teachers at the high school to present lessons at Jordan; conducting seminars at the law school related to areas of the law, as well as other topics of interest to the law students; and developing resources and connections for the high school student participants.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND ASSOCIATION IN AMERICA: This course will trace the historical development of free speech law in America from its surprisingly late birth in the cauldron of World War I, to its modern blossoming as one of the most fundamental constitutional rights the U.S. Supreme Court recognizes today. Among other things, the course will focus on the theories and justifications for the Court's recognition of "lesser-protected" categories of expression (e.g., advocacy of illegal conduct, obscenity and child pornography, and commercial advertising), its approach to evaluating the constitutionality of "fully-protected" expression (including political campaign contributions and expenditures), and its methods for evaluating speech rights when the government is regulating it in special capacities (such as when the government acts as property manager, employer, educator, or controller of the broadcast airwaves). This course will also cover several important ancillary First Amendment rights, such as the right not to speak and the freedom of expressive association (including the right not to include others in one's association).

SELECTED ISSUES IN COMMUNICATION LAW SEMINAR: Survey and in-depth discussion of selected issues associated with communication law, with particular emphasis on the nexus between administrative law regulation and decision-making and the development of the communications industry (technology development and dispersion).

- All seminars will begin meeting the second week of the semester
- Students must enroll in BOTH (Fieldwork AND Seminar) through the Clinical Programs Office in room 331A.
- All externships must be approved in advance by Professor Serafino, Director of Clinical Programs. Students must register with the Clinical Programs Office by February 1, 2010. All clinical courses are graded High Pass/Pass/Credit/Fail.

If you think you are interested in participating in an externship during the fall semester but have not yet secured a position, you must notify Rian Schoeffling (room 331A; rian.schoeffling@pepperdine.edu) or Professor Serafino (room 376; laurie.serafino@pepperdine.edu) of that intention by February 1, 2010.

If you have a pending or secured externship, you must also attend one of the mandatory orientation meetings as well as a weekly clinical seminar.

³⁴ This externship is open to all students working at criminal law agencies. Students who will be appearing in court are required to have completed LAW 1171 Trial Preparation & Settlement (Criminal) and LAW 0904 Evidence (concurrent enrollment with permission). Graded as High Pass/ Pass/Credit/Fail.
