SPRING 2013 CLASS SCHEDULE

NOTES ON 2013 SCHOOL OF LAW CALENDAR

NOTICE: UPPER-DIVISION WRITING AND SKILLS REQUIREMENT

The faculty has enacted an upper-division writing requirement and an upper division skills requirement as mandated for all law schools by the ABA. Courses that provide an opportunity to fulfill the writing requirement and the skills requirement are identified in the schedule. For more information about these requirements, please see sections 14.12 and 14.13 of the Academic Policy Statement at http://law.pepperdine.edu/academics/policy/.

NOTICE: PRIORITY ENROLLMENT FOR STRAUS DISPUTE RESOLUTION ELECTIVES

Students participating in either the dispute resolution certificate or master of dispute resolution program will receive priority enrollment in all dispute resolution elective courses, with the exception of the Alternative Dispute Resolution course. Students not participating in either program may place themselves on a waitlist and seat availability will be determined at the beginning of the semester. Seats not filled by program participants will be released to JD students on the waitlist.

NOTICE: RESCHEDULING EXAMS

Every effort has been made to avoid conflicts between required courses and in the final exam schedules. Students may not petition to reschedule a final exam unless two final exams are to be taken on the same day. Therefore, it is important for you to pay attention to the final exam schedule when you are selecting your courses. Petitions to change one of two exams scheduled for the same day must be filed by the seventh week of classes. For additional details concerning the law school final exam policies go to http://law.pepperdine.edu/academics/policy/.

D & L STRAUS DISTINGUISHED VISITING PROFESSOR

AHMED TAHA (Corporations, Accounting for Lawyers): Ahmed Taha's research focuses primarily on empirical studies of consumer and investor protection law. This research reflects both his training in law and in economics in which he holds a Ph.D. His research has been discussed in national media outlets, including the New York Times and the Wall Street Journal. He is also the 2011 recipient of the Joseph Branch Excellence in Teaching Award. Prior to joining the faculty, Professor Taha was an attorney in the Antitrust Division of the U. S. Department of Justice in Washington, D. C., an associate with Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati in Palo Alto, California, and a corporate finance analyst at McKinsey and Company in New York.

DISTINGUISHED VISITING PROFESSOR

JAMES TOMKOVICZ (Criminal Procedure): Professor Tomkovicz joined the faculty in 1982 after serving as a visiting professor at Iowa in the spring of 1981 and an adjunct professor at UCLA during the 1981-82 academic year. Prior to that, Professor Tomkovicz was an attorney with the Appellate Section of the Lands Division of the Department of Justice in Washington, D.C. He also served as a law clerk to Hon. Edward J. Schwartz, Chief Judge of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California, and as law clerk to Hon. John M. Ferren, Associate Judge of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals. Since joining the Iowa faculty, Professor Tomkovicz has taught Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure: Investigation, Criminal Procedure: Adjudication, and Evidence. During the spring, 1992, semester, he was a visiting professor at the University of Michigan Law School. He has also served as a visiting professor at the UCLA School of Law in 2003, 2008 and 2011 and at the University of San Diego School of Law during the summer sessions in 2004 and 2006. During the spring, 2002, semester, he was a faculty member in the London Law Consortium. Professor Tomkovicz is the coauthor (with Professor Welsh S. White (1940-2005)) of a casebook entitled Criminal Procedure: Constitutional Constraints Upon Investigation and Proof (6th edition, 2008, LexisNexis). A seventh edition of the casebook is in progress and should be available for Spring 2013 adoption. He has authored an outline entitled Criminal Procedure (1997, Aspen) and a scholarly text concerning the Sixth Amendment right to legal assistance that is entitled The Right to the Assistance of Counsel (Greenwood Press, 2002). In 2011, Oxford University Press published Professor Tomkovicz's most recent book, Constitutional Exclusion: The Rules, Rights, and Remedies that Strike the Balance Between Freedom and Order, an in-depth analysis of the seven constitutional bases for excluding evidence of guilt from criminal trials. In addition, Professor Tomkovicz has written several articles related to criminal procedure and criminal law. He is a member of the California and United States Supreme Court bars. Professor Tomkovicz has authored amicus curiae briefs for the American Civil Liberties Union and the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers in Knowles v. Iowa, Florida v. J.L., Kyllo v. United States, United States v. Patane, Maryland v. Blake, and Arizona v. Gant.

VISITING PROFESSORS

DONALD HARRIS (Sales, Patent Law): Professor Harris is a specialist in international intellectual property at Temple University, Beasley School of Law. He received his J.D. from Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, where he received the dean's award for outstanding public service and the pro bono service award. Professor Harris also received an LL.M. from the University of Wisconsin, where he was awarded the Hastie Fellowship, specializing in international intellectual property. Professor Harris joined Temple in 2003, and teaches in the areas of intellectual property and commercial law. His courses include: Introduction to Intellectual Property, International Intellectual Property, Patents, Trademarks and Uniform Commercial Code (Sales). Prior to joining Temple, Professor Harris practiced intellectual property law, specializing in patent litigation, as an associate in the San Francisco office of Cooley Godward. Professor Harris has spoken at numerous symposia and colloquia, and has written numerous articles on international intellectual property, including articles discussing the international intellectual property treaty, Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS).

SUSAN FRANCK (International Commercial Arbitration): Susan Franck is an Associate Professor of Law at Washington & Lee University School of Law where her teaching and scholarship relates to international economic law and dispute resolution. She has also been Visiting Associate Professor at Vanderbilt University Law School, Visiting Associate Professor at the University of Minnesota, Assistant Professor at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and a Scholar-In-Residence at the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD). Professor Franck is the author of various articles published in the American Journal of International Law, Fordham Law Review, Minnesota Law Review, North Carolina Law Review, Washington University Law Review, Virginia Journal of International Law, and Harvard Journal of International Law. Professor Franck has been elected to the International Who's Who of Commercial Arbitration since 2008 and was also responsible for the Joint Symposium on International Investment and Alternative Dispute Resolution, http://investmentadr.wlu.edu, a collaboration between Washington & Lee and UNCTAD.

Professor Franck also has practical experience in international commercial and investment treaty arbitration on both sides of the Atlantic. She was previously an associate at Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering's (now Wilmer Hale) International Group in Washington, D.C. where she was involved with various proceedings, including international trade disputes, commercial litigation regarding defaulted sovereign debt and one of the first investment treaty arbitrations against the Czech Republic. She was also a senior associate in the International Arbitration Group at Allen & Overy in London, England, where she represented investors and sovereign states in arbitrations involving breaches of investment treaties and underlying commercial agreements.

NEW ADJUNCT FACULTY MEMBERS

CRAIG H. AVERCH (Business Reorganizations in Bankruptcy): Craig Averch is a partner at White & Case and leads the Financial Restructuring and Insolvency Practice Group's Los Angeles-based team. His experience includes workouts and restructurings of problem loans and investments, as well as insolvencies, throughout the United States and Central and Eastern Europe. A 1984 law graduate of the University of Texas, Mr. Averch is licensed in both Texas and California and regularly appears in Federal Bankruptcy Courts across the country. Representative chapter 11 cases include the Texas Rangers (representing the successful purchaser); Mirant Corporation (representing the 86 consolidated debtors in the chapter 11 restructuring of $12 billion of debt); and WCI Communities (representing the 126 consolidated debtors in the chapter 11 restructuring of $2.5 billion of debt and tort liabilities). Prior to joining White & Case, Mr. Averch acted as Senior Counsel for the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, an international financial institution located in the United Kingdom. He has published numerous articles on bankruptcy and bankruptcy-related issues.

ALTHEA BAKER (Mediation Theory and Practice): Althea Baker is an experienced attorney arbitrator and mediator in the areas of employment, labor, civil, and family law. She has retired from serving more than ten years as a judicial hearing officer on Los Angeles Superior Court. Professor Baker is a prior Board Member of Southern California Mediation Association, and served twelve years as a Trustee Board Member of the Los Community College District. She has served as a mediation trainer and has served on several arbitration and mediation panels including American Arbitration Association, County of Los Angeles Employee Relations Commission, Los Angeles County Employees Retirement Association, and Dispute Resolution Services of LACBA. She has served as a Chief Negotiator in Labor Collective Bargaining, and has more than fifteen years of experience negotiating labor contracts from both the management and union sides of the bargaining table. She is a graduate of Loyola University Law School, Los Angeles, and has Masters and Bachelor degrees in psychology from Pepperdine University. An experienced educator, she has been a college professor and counseling department chairperson at community colleges, and previously served as the Associate Dean of Admissions at Pepperdine University.

LINDA BULMASH (Mediation Theory and Practice): With a strong background in math, science, and business, Linda Bulmash worked as a contract negotiator and provided oversight for sub-contractor materials contract compliance on the Space Shuttle and MX Missile programs prior to attending law school some 20 years after graduating from UCLA. Throughout her legal and mediation career Professor Bulmash has brought that same unparalleled logic, understanding of human behavior, and over thirty years of business and legal experience to the table. She is now a recognized expert in negotiation and mediation and since 2007 has written One Minute Negotiation Tips, a monthly online column for the Los Angeles County Bar Association. She has been a full time professional mediator since 1998 and has been with ADR Services, Inc. since 2001. Professor Bulmash has successfully resolved over 1500 complex cases.

CRAIG BOYD GARNER (Supreme Court and Health Care): Professor Garner is an attorney and health care consultant, specializing in issues surrounding modern American health care and the ways in which it should be managed in its current climate of reform. Between 2002 and 2011, he was the CEO at a community hospital in Los Angeles County, California. Last fall, Professor Garner published his book called Hospital Stay, a guide for patients and family members who find themselves in the confusing confines of a hospital environment. Professor Garner also writes specialized articles for various health care publications.

LISA HERZOG (Financing for High Tech Start-Ups): Lisa D. Herzog is a California Licensed Attorney with over 15 years of professional legal experience in the fields of business and real property litigation, employment litigation, discrimination litigation, and business transactions and agreements. Ms. Herzog is an adjunct professor for Pepperdine University School of Law and for Pepperdine University Graziadio School of Business and Management, both in Malibu, California. She received a B.A. in Communications and Psychology from Michigan State University (1986), a Masters in Labor and Industrial Relations from Michigan State University (1987), and her J.D. from Pepperdine University School of Law (1997).

Ms. Herzog serves as a writer, researcher, and editor for Harbinger Analytics Group where she specializes in preparing professional papers and articles for publication. She also assists David Woolley in compiling client reports and findings. Along with co-author David E. Woolley, Ms. Herzog recently published an article entitled "MERS: The Unreported Effects of Lost Chain of Title on Real Property Owners" in the University of California Hastings Business Law Journal (Spring 2012).

KIM RICHARDSON (Entertainment Law): Kim Richardson is Principal Counsel of The Walt Disney Company's Corporate Legal Data Privacy Group, which handles data privacy law counseling and compliance for the domestic and international operations of Disney. Prior to joining the Data Privacy Group, Ms. Richardson served as legal counsel for Disney Consumer Products, handling third party merchandise license agreements, the online and catalog retail businesses, and enforcement of Disney's International Labor Standards for product manufacturing. Ms. Richardson started her career with Disney as a production and human resources attorney for Walt Disney Feature Animation. Before moving to Disney, Ms. Richardson began her legal practice as a litigation associate with Mitchell Silberberg and Knupp, LLP in Los Angeles. Ms. Richardson represented a wide variety of general business and entertainment clients in commercial litigation matters involving breach of contract, copyright, trademark, right of publicity, employment and product liability disputes. Ms. Richardson received her J.D. from Harvard Law School. She received her B.A. in Communications (mass media emphasis) with a Specialization in Business Administration from UCLA, magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa. Ms. Richardson is also a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US).

GARY W. ROBINSON (Selected Issues in Dispute Resolution: Employment Disputes): Gary Robinson is the former Director of the Center for Dispute Resolution and Conflict Management at Southern Methodist University (SMU) in Dallas, Texas where he taught graduate level courses on Negotiation, Conflict in the Workplace, and Healthcare and Dispute Resolution. Mr. Robinson currently teaches courses on negotiation and conflict management as an Adjunct Professor at SMU, at the Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution at Pepperdine University in Malibu, California and at the Institute for Conflict Management at Lipscomb University in Nashville, Tennessee.

Mr. Robinson formerly served as Deputy General Counsel of Tenet Healthcare Corporation, a Fortune 500 company and owner of over fifty acute care hospitals from 1999-2007. As Deputy General Counsel, Mr. Robinson oversaw the management of Tenet's litigation, including all of its medical malpractice, employment, physician peer review and business litigation. Mr. Robinson now works as a senior conflict management consultant and trainer with numerous corporations, hospitals, and non-profit organizations on such issues as employee relations, team building and conflict management, conflict coaching, and negotiation skill building. Mr. Robinson has participated in over 200 mediations either as the attorney of record, the party, or the mediator. Mr. Robinson frequently serves as a mediator retained by organizations seeking to resolve workplace disputes before they escalate to litigation or arbitration.

MARK SELLERS (Land Use Planning): Mark Sellers has 20 years of municipal law experience as the former City Attorney of Thousand Oaks, a city that implemented many of the modern land use tools (growth management, oak tree and hillside preservation, and use of Specific Plans). He represents private developer clients on large master planned communities, commercial retail projects, and affordable housing projects. He is very adept at handling the sensitive political and legal challenges that one is frequently faced with in an open meeting on a land use decision. Mr. Sellers' expertise includes the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), Brown Act open meeting laws, General Plan compliance (Housing Element's Regional Housing Needs Allocation) and land use permit consistency laws, zoning, Subdivision Map Act, inverse condemnation, and development impact fees. He is familiar with the Army Corp of Engineers wetland impact regulations and storm run-off water quality issues and requirements of the Los Angeles Regional Water Quality Control Board. He has negotiated many Development Agreements, Conservation Easements, and Transfer of Development Rights Agreements for projects. He is well aware of the challenges facing a private land owner who wants to develop land today. He was named to the Pacific Coast Business Times most influential attorneys list in 2010 and 2011.

NEW COURSES BEING OFFERED THIS SPRING 2013

For other course descriptions, please refer to the course catalog on the School of Law website at http://law.pepperdine.edu/academics/content/catalog2012.pdf

CHRISTIANITY AND ENVIRONMENTAL LAW: This seminar explores the relationship between Christian teaching and the continued development of environmental law. While Christian teaching was largely absent from the debates surrounding the enactment of federal environmental statutes in the 1970s, the recent flowering of Christian environmental theology writing promises to yield new insights into our currently stalemated debates about the future of environmental law. We will study Christian environmental writing and then turn to how it relates to questions such as the ideal natural environment, the ultimate causes of environmental degradation, the role of science in environmental lawmaking, and how the virtue of humility can inform the creation and application of environmental law.

NINTH CIRCUIT APPELLATE ADVOCACY CLINIC: The Ninth Circuit Appellate Advocacy Clinic provides direct representation in prisoner rights (Sec. 1983) appellate cases pending in the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Under the Clinic Director's supervision, student activities may include studying ethical and practice issues, reviewing court records, interviewing clients, evaluating cases, researching legal issues, developing appellate theories, writing appellate briefs, and arguing appellate cases under special Circuit rules for clinics meeting the Court's standards. Units of credit are based on 52.5 hours of work per credit. Prerequisite: LAW 410 Appellate Advocacy.

SUPREME COURT AND HEALTHCARE: This seminar explores the meaning and impact for health care attorneys and providers of the 2010 Affordable Care Act, and the United States Supreme Court's decision (National Federation of Independent Business v. Sebelius, 132 S. Ct. 2566 (2012)) deciding health care reform's constitutionality. Students will be expected to consider the nature of the American health care system, as well as its system of law, in reflecting upon how the Affordable Care Act came to pass as well as the legal issues raised by its actual implementation today for all health care providers and practitioners. Students will also examine the role of the Supreme Court in shaping modern American health care, as well as the legal issues raised by the various efforts to unwind the Affordable Care Act even after the Supreme Court's decision. Constitutional issues addressing the Commerce Clause and Taxing and Spending Clause, as well as the meaning of federalism in the context of states' rights and the advancement of the Medicaid Program, will also be discussed, among other topics.

SPRING 2013 CLINICAL LAW COURSES

NOTES ON 2013 CLINICAL LAW COURSES

If you think you are interested in participating in an externship during the Spring 2013 semester, please contact clinicallaw@pepperdine.edu. The externship registration deadline is January 25, 2013.

If you have a pending or secured externship, you must attend one of the mandatory orientation meetings unless you have previously attended the orientation. The mandatory orientation meetings are on January  $16^{th}$  and January  $17^{th}$ , 2013. Please also note:

- Each externship includes a mandatory workshop that meets bi-weekly.
- All workshops will begin meeting the second week of the semester.
- Work at for-profit law firms does not qualify for externship credit.
- Externship students must enroll in both fieldwork and the accompanying workshop through the Clinical Programs Office in room 381.
- In-house clinical students may enroll via Wavenet.
- All externships are graded on a High Pass/Pass/Credit/Fail.
- All externships must be approved in advance by the Interim Director of Clinical Education, Elayne Berg-Wilion. Students must register with the Clinical Programs Office by January 25, 2013.
- All clinical courses are graded on a High Pass/Pass/Credit/Fail.
