

STRAUS INSTITUTE FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION 2015 SPRING COURSE SCHEDULE

NOTICES

ADVANCE ASSIGNMENTS FOR INTENSIVE COURSES

A class syllabus including any advance reading and/or writing assignments for intensive classes will be emailed to students 3-4 weeks prior to the start of class. Please note that it is each student's responsibility to review the syllabus well before the class begins and complete any advance assignments. Students who show up the first day unprepared risk being dropped from the class.

RESCHEDULING EXAMS

While most Straus classes will require a final paper instead of a final exam, it is important for everyone to be aware of the exam rescheduling policy in the event you enroll in one or more classes with a final exam. Students may not petition to reschedule a final exam unless two final exams are to be taken on the same day. Therefore, it is important for you to pay attention to the final exam schedule when you are selecting your courses. Petitions to change one of two exams scheduled for the same day must be filed by the seventh week of classes. For additional details concerning the law school final exam policies go to <http://law.pepperdine.edu/academics/policy/>.

EXTERNSHIP ENROLLMENT

Students cannot register for externships through WaveNet. All students are required to have their externship placement confirmed before they can register. Please submit an add/drop registration form <http://law.pepperdine.edu/academics/content/registration-adddrop.pdf> to Joanna Reese at joanna.reese@pepperdine.edu or fax to (310) 506-4437 together with the placement information form <http://law.pepperdine.edu/straus/content/4PlacementForm.pdf>. All externships should be completed within the semester registered unless prior permission has been granted for extended time. A full description of the externship requirements are available on our web site at: <http://law.pepperdine.edu/straus/academics/externships/>

LL.M. INDEPENDENT STUDY ENROLLMENT

Students needing to enroll in a required LL.M. Independent Study Project need to speak with Professor Stephanie Bell prior to enrolling.

THESIS ENROLLMENT

Students desiring to enroll in Thesis credits need to secure approval from their program advisor before enrolling.

NEW ADJUNCT FACULTY MEMBERS

Betty Gilmore is Director of the Dispute Resolution and Counseling Department at SMU. Dr. Gilmore teaches courses in both the Dispute Resolution and Masters in Counseling Programs. She is the former training program director for the Center for Public Policy Dispute Resolution at the University of Texas School of Law where she provided a variety of alternative dispute resolution services including mediation, training, assessment and consultation to governmental agencies, policymakers, and others involved in public disputes. In addition, she has served as a visiting faculty member at Hiroshima University where she co-taught an international negotiation course. Dr. Gilmore earned her bachelor's degree in psychology from Southern Methodist University. In addition, she received her Master's and Doctoral degrees in clinical psychology from the California School of Professional Psychology in Los Angeles, California. She has received extensive training in dispute resolution through Harvard's Program on Negotiation, Pepperdine's Straus Institute, CDR Associates, and the American Institute of Mediation. As a licensed clinical psychologist, she has worked in clinical, teaching, training, supervisory and consulting roles in a wide variety of settings including academic, workplace, private practice, community and health care.

Doug Noll AV-rated, is listed in The Best Lawyers in America and is a Northern California Super Lawyer. Noll holds an M.A. in peacemaking and conflict studies from Fresno Pacific University and is an adjunct law professor at San Joaquin College of Law. He is a Distinguished Fellow of International Academy of Mediators and American College of Civil Trial Mediators and is certified by the International Mediation Institute. His books include Elusive Peace: How Modern Diplomatic Strategies Could Better Resolve World Conflicts, Sex, Politics & Religion at the Office: The New Competitive Advantage, and Peacemaking: Practicing at the Intersection of Law and Human Conflict.

Catherine Rogers is professor of law and international affairs, and the Paul & Marjorie Price Faculty Scholar at Penn State Law. She is a scholar of international arbitration and professional ethics. Her scholarship focuses on the convergence of the public and private in international adjudication, and on the reconceptualization of the attorney as a global actor. Rogers has taught, lectured, and published extensively on these topics around the world, including as an invited participant at two Stanford-Yale Junior Faculty Fora. Her forthcoming book, Ethics in International Arbitration, will be published in 2013 by Oxford University Press. She is an associate reporter for the American Law Institute's new Restatement of the Law (Third) of International Commercial Arbitration.

Jack Waddey is a senior principal and co-founder of Waddey Patterson, PC, a Nashville based intellectual property law firm having 20+ patent professionals. Mr. Waddey has been lead counsel in dozen of IP cases, including patent, trademark, and copyright claims and defenses. Over the last 16 years, Mr. Waddey's practice has focused almost entirely in the Alternate Dispute Resolution area. Mr. Waddey's undergraduate degree is in Aerospace Engineering from Auburn University and he received his JD degree from Georgetown University Law Center, where he served as assistant editor of the Georgetown Law Journal. Following law school Mr. Waddey was law clerk for Judge Harry Phillips, Chief Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the 6th Circuit. Thereafter, he was an associate at Arent Fox in Washington, D.C. and later moved to his hometown of Nashville, Tennessee to engage in private practice of law as a litigator and intellectual property specialist. He is a Distinguished Fellow and member of the Board of Governors of the International Academy of Mediators, and serves on the technology panel of CPR neutrals, the trademark panel of neutrals of the INTA, and is a Seminal Member of Tennessee & National Academies of Distinguished Mediators and Arbitrators.
