The Basics:

- All externships must be approved in advance by Sophia Hamilton, Director of Externships. Students must register with the Clinical Programs Office by the last day of add/drop, September 1, 2017. Students may not make any adjustments to their registration, work commitment or credit hours after this date. Students who secure field placements after the drop/add deadline may be permitted to enroll at the director's approval, but will be limited to two units and must secure a Faculty Advisor in lieu of the workshop.
- If you think you are interested in participating in an externship during the Fall semester but have not yet secured a position, please notify the Clinical Program Manager at donna.brabec@pepperdine.edu.
- If you have a pending or secured externship, you must attend the mandatory orientation as well as a bi-weekly workshop.
- Students who are taking externships for the second or third term are not required to attend the workshop but must participate in on-going, contemporaneous, faculty-guided reflection as designated by the Director of Externships.
- Students in subsequent externships must complete all requisite paperwork, including registration materials, timesheets and evaluations, and should submit all of these materials to Ms. Brabec, the Clinical Program Manager, by the deadlines set out in the syllabus and handbook.
- All externships are graded on a High Pass/Pass/Credit/Fail basis. The workshop component is part of the externship course grade.
- The externship must be secured and officially registered before the hours can begin accumulating toward credit, unless otherwise approved by the Director of Externships.
- It is the extern's responsibility to submit all required documents on time and keep track of their hours.
- Please keep a copy of all of your timesheets and other required documents.

Externship Courses

LAW 300.01 Externship Field Placements (maximum 10 units per placement. Students may earn academic credit for legal work they perform with or without pay, under the supervision of licensed attorneys in a variety of field placements. Qualifying field placements may be in judicial, governmental, military, public interest and in-house corporate law offices. To earn credit for an unpaid externship at private, for-profit law firms the students' work must be exclusively on pro bono matters for the duration of the externship. Students may earn credit for paid placements at private, for-profit law firms, if approved by the Director of Externships.

In Judicial placements, students develop skills in legal analysis, research, and writing under the supervision of a judge. Externships in trial courts offer an overview of litigation practice and observation of oral advocacy; externships in appellate courts focus on analysis, research and writing.

Public agencies conducting both criminal defense and prosecution allow students to assist in almost all aspects of representation. Under the Practical Training of Law Students (PTLS) program of the State Bar of California or Federal Student Practice Rule, students may be certified to appear in court under the direct supervision of a licensed attorney. In order to be certified students must be enrolled in or have completed evidence. However, it is strongly recommended that students complete evidence and criminal trial prep and settlement before seeking certification (visit Calbar.org under "Practical Training for Law Students" for more information about certification).

Through externships with the various public interest entities, in both the public and private sectors, students will explore the role of the lawyer in society, as well as ethics and morality as it applies to law. Students develop their skills in analysis, negotiation, writing and counseling.

In corporate placements, students work under the supervision of lawyers in in-house counsel offices on diverse matters including governance, compliance, transactions, financing, licensing, negotiating and contracts. These placements may include entertainment companies, guilds, agencies, sports, finance, and real-estate companies.

Through field placements in the government sector, students develop their skills in legal analysis and reasoning, negotiation, interviewing, research and writing.

Workshops

Workshops are a required element of each externship. Workshops meet bi-weekly and begin the second week of the semester. Students who have already taken and completed an externship and the required workshop or faculty advisor are not required to take a workshop, have faculty advisors or submit journals for subsequent externships.

Student Information

1. Eligibility. Second and third-year law students in good academic standing (cumulative GPA of 2.3 or higher) are eligible to participate in the externship program. Students with an overall GPA below a

2.3 may be eligible for participation, with a waiver from the Academic Dean. The Director of Externships must confer with each student and approve all externships.

2. Externships. The externship inquiry should begin by meeting with the Director of Externships to clarify the student's goals. Students are advised to view Symplicity and reference directories in the Career Development Office for externship opportunities. Unpaid externships at private law firms are not approved unless they are nonprofit public interest entities (cf. section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code) or the student will be performing only pro bono, public interest work and the placement is approved by the director. Paid externships for credit are subject to approval by the Director of Externships. New externships may be approved if they meet clinical educational objectives, and afford adequate field and faculty supervision.

3. Credit. Every 52.5 hours of completed fieldwork earns one unit of course credit. Hours are not accrued during travel time, lunch, breaks, or holidays, and hours may not be accrued for work done remotely. Credit can be granted only in 52.5-hour increments; in other words, 104 hours of fieldwork earns only one unit of credit. Exceptions can be made only with the approval of the Academic Dean. Other restrictions may be imposed on new externships as deemed necessary. In addition, no more than 22 non-classroom units may be counted toward the J.D. degree, including journals and competitions.

4. Workshop. Concurrent enrollment is required in one of the workshops for first time externs. All workshops begin the second week of the term and meet on alternating weeks. Workshop hours count toward work hours. Students who have already taken and completed an externship and the required workshop or faculty advisor are not required to take a workshop or have faculty advisors, but must participate in on-going, contemporaneous, faculty-guided reflection as designated by the Director of Externships. Students in subsequent externships must complete all requisite paperwork, including registration materials, timesheets, and evaluations, but should submit all of these materials to Ms. Brabec, the Clinical Program Manager, by the deadlines set out in the syllabus and handbook. Returning externs are required to meet with Professor Hamilton mid-semester and at the end of the semester to discuss their placement.

5. Student reporting requirements. The reporting requirements consist of weekly timesheets, a student evaluation, and journals. Timesheets, journals and the student evaluation must be submitted to the Clinical Program Manager, Donna Brabec. The actual timesheet form and the student evaluation form may be found in this handbook, and the School of Law website. Journal information may be found in the workshop syllabus or by emailing Donna Brabec at donna.brabec@pepperdine.edu.

6. Supervisor evaluations. Field supervisors are required to complete mid-term and final evaluations of their externs. The mid-term evaluation is intended to encourage discussion between the extern and supervisor about the externship's direction and progress. The final evaluation is completed by the supervisor alone. The mid-term evaluation and final evaluation forms may be found in this handbook, and the School of Law website.

7. Further information. For more information, please contact Prof. Sophia Hamilton, Director of Externships, by phone at (310) 506-4758 or e-mail at sophia.hamilton@pepperdine.edu, or Donna Brabec, Clinical Program Manager, by phone at (310) 506-7449 or by email at donna.brabec@pepperdine.edu.
