Court Web

The Center broadcasts monthly LIVE Court Web programs for judges and attorneys on topics such as Supreme Court Updates, Section 1983 Litigation, the Psychology of Litigation, Ethical Concerns in the Age of Social Media, Evidence, Criminal Procedure, Neuroscience and Habeas. Faculty include judges, law professors, and other subject-matter experts. Participants may view live webcasts on FJC.dcn. (Webcasts are recorded and can be viewed online at any time. They are also available on DVD.)

Maintaining an Exemplary Workplace

This video on Maintaining an Exemplary Workplace was specifically designed for law clerks and is available at this link: <http://fjc.dcn/content/341441/orientation-new-law-clerks-maintaining-an-exemplary-workplace> The video focuses on workplace conduct and should be viewed by law clerks.

The Law Clerk Handbook

This handbook provides an overview of chambers operations and the work of the federal courts and is available in PDF at this link: <http://fjc.dcn/content/334796/law-clerk-handbook-revised-third-edition>.

Orientation for Federal Law Clerks

The Interactive Orientation for Federal Law Clerks (iOLC) is a two-phase, online program for new term law clerks. Phase I sessions include Maintaining the Public Trust, Court Web: Ethical Concerns in the Age of Social Media, and Every Judge Would Edit Shakespeare. Phase I sessions and resources are available at <http://fjc.dcn/content/interactive-orientation-federal-judicial-law-clerks-iolc>. Phase II topics are Legal Writing and Editing, Federal Jurisdiction, Hearsay, and Preparing for Sentencing. Phase II sessions are available at: <http://fjc.dcn/content/interactive-orientation-federal-judicial-law-clerks-iolc>. Phase II also includes access to the Center's monthly LIVE Court Web webcasts and the Attorney Discussion Forum.
