Summer 2010 International Study Tour

East Meets West: Consensus and Resolution Across the Pacific

Study In Hong Kong And Beijing
June 28—July 8, 2010

Participants in this course will study the impact of culture on dispute resolution in two of the most vibrant cities in Asia. This program will focus on the cultural nuances of Asia and the United States as they impact the three main ADR processes: negotiation, mediation, and arbitration. Participants will learn from U.S. and Asian professionals who have successfully negotiated, mediated, and arbitrated matters between American and Chinese concerns. The site visits will support the assignment for consulting groups to advise their clients on culturally sensitive approaches to resolve a complex case problem. Site visits and guest speakers can include:

- The Hong Kong High Court
- The Court of Final Appeal
- The Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC)
- A Hong Kong law firm and a Barristers Chambers
- Hong Kong Department of Justice
- China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC)
- A Chinese Law Firm
- The Beijing Arbitration Commission

Cost:
- Tuition for this course: $2,880.
- Airfare from Los Angeles to Hong Kong (price dependent on carrier and time of purchase).
- Visa and airport tax: Approximately $195.
- Travel Agency Fee: Approximately $1500. This fee will need to be paid directly to the travel agency by students and covers lodging for the entire trip, airfare from Hong Kong to Beijing most group activities and some meals.
- Activity Fee: Approximately $150. This fee will be charged directly to your student account.
- Meals not included as group activities and money for other activities.

FACULTY: Tom Stipanowich and Sally Harpole

° Students will be selected to participate in this two-unit course through a special application process.

° Priority deadline for Pepperdine Students, November 16, 2009

For more information contact jeannie.jakstis@pepperdine.edu or call the Straus office at 310-506-4655